

Kira Connolly-Nelson, APNP

As a Nurse Practitioner, Kira focuses on women's health and wellness, as well as adult primary care. Kira earned two Bachelor of Science Degrees in Nursing and Women's Health from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She then went on to work as a Registered Nurse in the Family Childbirth Center at Meriter Hospital.

She earned her Master's degree in Nursing from the University of Washington, where she received two certifications in adult and women's health. Kira began her career as a Nurse Practitioner at Omni Family Medical Clinic, S.C. with a goal of taking care of women and their families within the community.

Providing care that is "holistic" is a priority for Kira, which is to say that she pays attention to the whole person - the physical, mental, and emotional aspects of someone within the context of family and community. In addition, she places an emphasis on disease prevention and health promotion.

Kira is conversational in Spanish and enjoys working with people from diverse backgrounds. She has lived and traveled in Latin America, and recently returned from a trip to Ethiopia and Kenya. In her free time, Kira enjoys listening to music, biking, exploring the outdoors, and spending time with family and friends.
